Dear Mr. Evers:

This is in further response to your March 26, 2018 Freedom of Information Act request seeking access to records of communications between the Office of the Assistant Attorney General of the Civil Rights Division and specific Governors and Attorney Generals, relating to immigration enforcement, DACA, border protection, or potential or actual changes to federal immigration policy or practices from September 5, 2017 to the present.

After a thorough search, I have determined that the Civil Rights Division has no responsive records pertaining to your request.

If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 60 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

I hope the Civil Rights Division has been of some assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tink Cooper
